

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—SUNDAY, MARCH 25, 1860.

Local Matters.

SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1860.

SIO RIVERCRAFT.

We will print the results of our recent excursion up the Sio River, in our next number.

MICHAELAN, THOMAS & CO.

MEMPHIS.

Commerce and Merchants' Exchange, to take place at the office of the Memphis Insurance Company, on Monday next, allow us to name Mr. Michaelan, President. Mr. N. has probably more to inaugurate this great enterprise than any one else. He fully understands the whole project, and for his indefatigable labor in getting it up, should by all means be specially honored.

Observations.—There will be no opposition to the Priesthood at St. Mary's Church this morning. Services begin at 1000 o'clock. Seats free.

OVERLAND MAIL.—The new and small Overland Mail, with San Francisco, Sacramento, and other arrival news, are to be had at Mr. Knudt's, the local agent. See files of papers.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.—There will be preaching at the Second Congregational Presbyterian Church, on Saturday evening, at 7 P.M., by Rev. Dr. C. H. Cook, and at 7 A.M. and 7 P.M., by Rev. E. G. Fox, Pastor.

WEEKLY SERVICES.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the law court of Clark A. Webster, Esq., late Brewster, who has permanently located himself in Memphis, and will give his attention to all business entrusted to him.

COURTIAL COURT.—This tribunal will be in session to-morrow, at 10 A.M., before Judge McRae will preside. It is well that there be no trial, as he has been charged with the murder of Jas. W. Myers, and the evidence to prove his guilt is to be admitted to the trial.

ACCIDENT TO THE MAYOR.—We regret to announce that his Honor Mayor Baugh was thrown to the ground while attempting to enter the city hall, on Front Street, on Saturday, and badly injured. He was in full physical condition when he was on the steps of the city hall.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.—A stranger in the city, named James, was arrested Friday night, and is now in custody, on a charge of larceny. He is said to have been from North Memphis, a boarding-house. Mike McNeevey was also arrested, yesterday, on the charge of stealing $300 from John Glancey's boarding-house.

A FIRE ESTABLISHMENT.—Owen & Davis, at No. 20 Madison street, have received a fine collection of money, and are now in full force, as may be seen by referring to their advertisement this morning. People were good, articles at moderate prices, and sold out or attentive and courteous, gentleman, should call on Owen & Davis.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—An Englishman, a citizen of the United States, was held to bail yesterday for robbing a mail coach, and has been released.

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE.—An Englishman, a citizen of the United States, was held to bail yesterday for robbing a mail coach, and has been released.
